MAIN STAGE

ZIGGY ALBERTS Sat 8.00pm - 9.10pm

Ziggy Alberts' captivating live performances earned him a reputation as one of Australia's leading troubadours. His heartfelt intimate songs explore love, friendship and connection with nature. In his words, his latest album Searching For Freedom is "an expression of an adventure that I've realised will last a lifetime".

DMA'S Sun 8.25pm - 9.30pm

Three friends in a bedroom. Some amps, some beers and a love of nostalgic garage pop. What could go wrong? DMA's have a gift for writing anthemic, emotionally affecting music. Lay Down, In The Air and Delete have become rallying cries for fans. In 2021, DMA's won Album Of The Year and Rock Album Of The Year at the 2021 ARIA Awards.

THE TESKEY BROTHERS Fri 5.40pm - 6.50pm

In a world obsessed with the 'new' The Teskey Brothers are a soothing antidote: old souls with chest-warming anthems that rouse the spirits of the greats. Their debut album Half Mile Harvest propelled the band onto the world stage with a raw combination of soul and blues that channels the Stax Records alumni in Memphis circa '67.

THE DANDY WARHOLS Sun 6.45pm - 7.55pm

In a world obsessed with the 'new' The Teskey Brothers are a soothing antidote: old souls with chest-warming anthems that rouse the spirits of the greats. Debut album Half Mile Harvest propelled the band onto the world stage with a raw combination of soul and blues that channels the Stax Records alumni in Memphis circa '67.

CONFIDENCE MAN Sat 11.05pm - 11.55pm

Confidence Man have levelled dance floors with performances custom designed to make you move. This smokin' hot act has played some of the biggest festivals in the world including Rock en Seine, Primavera Sound and Glastonbury. Propelled by bouncy beats, a healthy dollop of 1990s dance pop and some serious disco nous.

CURTIS HARDING Sat 5.05pm - 6.10pm

Reared on a diet of Mahalia Jackson and Mavis Staples, Curtis Harding learned to sing and play drums in church. His album If Words Were Flowers is an intoxicating bouquet: drawing on everything from vintage soul to hip hop, garage rock to psychedelia. These infectious airtight grooves are destined to get you on your feet.

MAIN STAGE

WINSTON SURFSHIRT Sat 6.35pm - 7.35pm

Six-piece collective Winston Surfshirt are one of the world's finest indie-R&B ensembles. The band channels a vintage kind of rock zeitgeist: less about ego and more about the sonic journey and shared experience. Fusing a classic west coast hip hop sound with the snap of psych-pop and a sunny, uniquely Australian charm.

WOLFMOTHER Sat 9.35pm - 10.40pm

Wolfmother have amassed an international fanbase like few others – famed for their high-octane rock that sound-checks the best of them. Their unique brand of cosmic rock has earned them their stripes as one of the true titans of 21st Century rock'n'roll. Catch the colossus as it rolls through Wanderer.

SARAH BLASKO Sun 5.25pm - 6.20pm

Sarah Blasko is a rarity. A songwriter whose sublime musical creations at once transcend and burrow deep. Her songs strike with rare immediacy, purity and meaning. Genre-defining indie-rock and art-pop at its best. Over the course of her albums, she has received 3 ARIA awards and triple j's Album Of The Year.

JACK RIVER Fri 7.15pm - 8.15pm

With tens of millions of streams and both gold and platinum singles, Jack River has pioneered a new form of artistry that brings together kick-arse songs with meaningful advocacy. Recent single We Are The Youth draws from a long-held passion for climate and environmental movements.

DZ DEATHRAYS Sat 3.50pm - 4.40pm

It was a time of skinny jeans, checkerboard vans and indie sleaze. But 2012 was also the moment Brisbane outfit DZ Deathrays disrupted the universe with an ear-wrestling pearler of a debut album, Bloodstreams. The newcomers went on to win the ARIA Award for Best Hard Rock / Heavy Album that year.

JOSH PYKE Fri 4.15pm - 5.15pm

Talented troubadour Josh Pyke has released six top ten albums, received four ARIA Awards, gone platinum twice and had nine songs appear in triple j's Hottest 100. Pyke has travelled to the farthest reaches of both the nation and his inner self and returned with his most revealing album yet, To Find Happiness.

MAIN STAGE

PIERCE BROTHERS Sun 4.05pm - 5.00pm

For years, twin brothers Jack and Patrick Pierce have been a staple of the Australian indie-folk, blues and roots scene. Pierce Brothers started their journey as street buskers, honed their craft touring relentlessly and are renowned for captivating audiences with their lively shows.

DIDIRRI Sun 2.50pm - 3.40pm

Didirri is from the coastal town of Warrnambool. He began writing songs as a challenge to himself to open up and be honest. Didirri sings with both conviction and vulnerability and together strangers are connected to think and feel, be open to the dark, the light and all that's in between – but always with hope.

ISABELLA MANFREDI Sat 2.35pm - 3.25pm

Sometimes things need to come to an end to allow a new beginning. When Isabella Manfredi departed her hugely successful and much-loved band The Preatures in 2021, she left her legion of fans in shock. Emerging from the debris was Jealousy, an infectious hook-laden single with sprawling Prince-esque pop.

THE DREGGS Fri 8.40pm - 9.40pm

The Dreggs are an indie folk band that go beyond the hooks to dig deep into life's mysteries and offer hope. The pair met over a shared love of the ocean, and its presence manifests deeply – such as in the rousing Call Me Home and crowd favourite Give Myself To You.

MAPLE GLIDER Sun 12.35pm - 1.20pm

For Maple Glider, music was never about trend or fashion – it was about freedom. Brought up in a restrictive religious household, music came with existential gravitas. Traversing the line between folk and country, Glider shares vignettes of her life. Most are piano and guitar-soaked paeans to love.

HARVEY SUTHERLAND Sun 10.00pm - 10.50pm

Harvey Sutherland is many things: producer, DJ and funk synthesist. Blending a broad array of influences both old and new, his early EPs were championed by international tastemakers such as Gilles Peterson, Jamie xx, Disclosure and The Black Madonna. Sutherland brings his infectious hybrid world of beats and treats.

WANDERER

EMMA DONOVAN & THE PUTBACKS

Fri 3.50pm - 4.40pm

Unified via a shared love for classic American soul and the protest music of indigenous Australia, Emma Donovan & The Putbacks are the perfect collision between two profound musical traditions. Where Donovan's songwriting is impassioned and brutally honest, The Putbacks' music is fluid, visceral and raw.

GRENTPEREZ Sat 7.00pm - 7.50pm

Occasionally a star rises from the most unexpected of skies. Sydney-born independent singer, songwriter and producer grentperez is one such ethereal being. From the intimacy of his bedroom his handcrafted DIY pop has generated millions of YouTube views & 'Cherry Wine' over 40 million Spotify streams.

HAYLEY MARY Fri 6.25pm - 7.15pm

Hayley Mary's Fall in Love is a swaggering, swooping piece of indie-pop. A dirty Motown-drenched sonic boom that perfectly captures the dizzying hue of falling in love. Sonically the EP furthers the neo-wall-of-sound that Mary has become renowned for since transitioning from front-woman of The Jezabels to solo artist.

ALICE IVY Fri 9.15pm - 10.00pm

Alice Ivy's eclectic signature sound spans the great aural divide - soul, hip hop and electronic pop, allowing her to apply her unique musical dexterity as a multi-instrumentalist. She's landed eight consecutive singles on high rotation at triple j. Her explosive live performance will get you cutting shapes and groovin' into the night.

WERK IT

Fri 2.35pm - 3.25pm Sat 3.00pm - 3.50pm Sun 1.40pm - 2.30pm

Partial to a little spandex, high vis and trapeze? The dazzling folk behind Neon and Can't Face bring Werk It - a high-energy, acrobatic comedy romp! Featuring OMG acrobatic feats & dizzying skill, this over-the-top ensemble will be hip thrusting its way into an Aerobics Oz Style fever dream.

GERALDINE HICKEY & FRIENDS

Sat 4.10pm - 5.00pm Sun 3.25pm - 4.05pm

Hickey's wry observational comedy is sharp as a freshly stropped razor and earned her the Most Outstanding Show award at the 2021 Melbourne Comedy Festival. Geraldine will be joined in a triple bill of award winning stand-up comedy by Lizzie Hoo and Alex Ward.

THE LOST LANDS

ASTRID & OTTO - DIE ROTEN PUNKTE

Fri 2.00pm - 2.45pm Sat 3.00pm - 3.30pm

This delightfully dysfunctional brother/sister duo is bursting with lipstick-smeared, tantrum-loving, sonic collisions between B-52s, The Pixies, Kraftwerk and early Ramones. Berlin's Prince and Princess of hilarity bring their schlock-rock majesty in a very special staging of their many hits (and misses!).

MARIO QUEEN OF THE CIRCUS

Fri 3.30pm - 4.15pm Sat 1.30pm - 2.15pm Sun 3.45pm - 4.15pm
